Daniel McLeod returned to his home in Plainfield to-day, after a visit with friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Ayers have returned from a motor trip to Boston.

Myer S. Levin of Merchant street, who has been ill for several days, is back at his desk in the Union Clothing store.

Mrs. Carter Downing of Boston is visiting her uncle, Elmer O. Holmes, called by the serious illness of her grandmother, Mrs. Ellen M. Holmes.

William Cole of Jefferson street, a granite manufacturer, who was very ill of the influenza for a fortnight, is able to be out of doors for a time each day.
Bruce McDonald, who has been manager of the People's Shoe store in Montpelier for the past three years, began work yesterday as salesman in the People's Shoe store, Barre.

Seaman Robert Wright, who was assigned to duty at Pelham Bay, N. Y., after his enlistment in the navy, has been transferred to South Carolina, according to word received by friends here.

The People's Shoe store have consolidated their stock in the Currier block, Barre, and now have by far the largest stock of shoes in Washington county—adv.

H. P. Hildman, director of Vermont of the publicity bureau of the united war work campaign to be waged Nov. 11-18, returned last evening from Boston, where he attended a conference of New England people who are to work during the campaign.

R. C. Holland of Franklin street, who has been assisting in the furniture store of A. W. Badger & Co., has completed his duties yesterday and expects to leave to-morrow on a business trip through New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Mr. Holland plans to close his house for the winter and to-morrow Mrs. Holland and children are to go to Rutland, their former home, for an extended sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Abbott and daughter have vacated their home on Belmont avenue, which they sold to Alexander Duncan of the North Barre Granite Co. some months ago. They are residing at Hotel Barre for a time and later they will go to California for an extended sojourn. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan have been occupying a house on East street, but expect to be located in their new home shortly.

F. G. Howland and Alderman Alex. A.
Milne have been notified that the American Conference for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, which was to have been held in Providence, R. I., this week, has been indefinitely postponed because of the influenza epidemic. Messrs. Howland and Milne are members of a Vermont commission appointed recently by Governor Graham to represent this state in the conference.

John Calverto, who has been visiting at his home on North Main street since returning from Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S. C., went to Waterbury this morning to remain with relatives for a few days. Mr. Calverto was honorably discharged from the United States army as the result of injuries received in an accident, but he has so far regained his health as to be able to rejoin the colors and expects to be called to the service within a short time.

Corp. Hugh Ramella, who was called to Barre by the illness of his mother, Mrs. Charlotte Ramella of Berlin street, returned last night to Camp Mead. Private Albert Bertrand, who was recalled to Barre when members of his family, following the demise of his brother, were taken seriously ill, returned last night to Yaphank, L. I., where he is stationed at Camp Upton. Private Joseph Zanieloni also returned to Camp Upton, after passing a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zanieloni, of North Main street.

James Parker of Summer street has received an interesting letter from his son, Seaman James Parker of the U. S.
S. Wyandotte, which recently arrived in an Atlantic port after an extended cruise in foreign waters. Seaman Parker will not have an opportunity to visit Barre during his present furlough, but plans to make a short sojourn among relatives and former Barre residents in Western, R. I. In England recently he had the pleasure of traveling down from London to the south of England, where he met relatives of a number of Barre people who came originally from that corner of the British Isles. Seaman Parker was aboard the U. S. S. Kansas and also sailed with the U. S. S. Missouri when direful accidents overtook those ships some time ago. His brother is in the British navy.

fore next spring. Come in and get prices.
Hotel Barre, J. V. Rowen, Mgr.

Following closely the tidings of his demise, the body of Private William Greenleaf, formerly of Barre Town, arrived in the city last evening from Fort Slocum, N. Y., where the soldier passed away Oct. 20, after an illness of broncho-pneumonia. The deceased was nearing his 25th birthday and had been in the service several months when he was stricken with influenza. The remains are to be removed from A. W. Badger & Co.'s undertaking establishment, to South Barre, where the funeral will be held in the home of Dana Comstock Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev.
B. J. Lehigh, pastor of the First Baptist church, will officiate, and interment is to be made in the cemetery at Orange Center.

Only four changes were made at the meeting of the board of civil authority in the court room at city hall last evening. The session was lightly attended as to justices of the peace, and as soon as the short line of applicants had been interviewed as to changes of residence, the meeting adjourned. Two more meetings of the board are scheduled. They will be on the evenings of Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 30 and 31. After that the check list copy will be placed in the hands of the printer in anticipation of the November election, which is to be held one week from Tuesday. In connection with the meetings of the board, it should be said that persons desiring merely a change in address, from one street to another, or from one ward to another, may leave a record of the change with the city clerk. But persons whose names are not now on the check list and who wish to have them added must appear before the board of civil authority.

MONTPELIER

Private Emery, who has been in a base hospital in Boston, after returning from France, passed through the city Wednesday evening, having arrived on the morning train, on a 17 days' leave of absence. He said he was going to Cabot for a visit with relatives and that he was formerly a member of Co. E. A. According to the records of the adjutant general's office, Bartlett E. Emery, a son of Fred Emery, enlisted June 4, 1917, in the First Vermont regiment, and was the same year transferred to the ammunition train and then to the 103d infantry. Private Emery, according to his story at the Central Vermont station Thursday morning, has been in service in France, but came home because of trouble with his feet and legs.

The board of control, following its conference with the building committee of the department of education at Randolph Center Thursday, authorized the completion of the building which includes the furnishing of it. The work will be finished in about a month.

Orville Pine has gone to Keeseville, N. Y., for a visit.

L. M. Shedd, who was called home to Franklin because of illness in his family, has resumed his duties in the highway commissioner's office.

Charles Adams and Chandler Brown of this city have received their calls to go to Camp Taylor in Kentucky for officers' training. Mr. Adams has been spending a few weeks here in anticipation of the call. Mr. Brown has been at home since he returned from France, where he was an ambulance driver in the Red Cross work for a year.

William H. Larnigan of Manchester, N. H., is here to attend the funeral of Miss Mary Hoffman, a cousin.

Mrs. Jessie A. Watkins of Barre is employed as clerk in the office of the adjutant general during the draft work.

State Treasurer W. F. Scott of Brandon was at his office to-day after attending a board of control meeting at Randolph yesterday. He has recovered from the grip, from which he suffered a couple of weeks. W. L. Davis, also of the board of control, went to his home in Rutland this morning. He spent some time looking over the work of the men in the inventory of state property.

The funeral of Miss Olive Guernsey, who died Thursday afternoon, will take place from her late home at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

W. Neil Hornbrook has gone to Bellows Falls, where he has employment in the American Railway Express office.

Miss Laura Burbank commenced Saturday her annual vacation from the commission of industries office.

Mrs. W. E. Hutton of Northfield and Miss Francis Drennan of St. Albans are employed in the district board office during the rush of work.

Adjutant General T. Johnson sent this morning to the local boards orders that they rush on their classifications and examinations of registrants under the new draft, for this state has been called upon to furnish 2,012 men in the next 60 days. With a couple of exceptions, no examinations have been made by the local boards in the various counties. Such is the case in Washington county and examinations will commence next week. The influenza epidemic has caused large calls to be placed on the states which are well through the malady and in which Vermont is one. It is expected that in a few days a call for special service men will also be made.

A meeting will take place this evening in city hall when C. A. Simons of Manchester, in the interests of better roads, will confer with the board of trade relative to its co-operation.

The fire department was called out about 8:45 o'clock this morning for a fire in the Soper and Spooner garage.
Too hot a fire was built in the stove, which set fire to the woodwork where the pipe goes through the ceiling of the room. A still alarm would have handled the blaze. The fire was all out in 15 minutes. The damage will be small.
It looked as though it would be a lively fire for it was in between the ceiling and floor above the latter. This is the first time a general call has been rung since July 14, when Chief Parsons took the office.

George LeClair of various places appeared in city court this morning on the charge of breach of peace, to which he pleaded guilty. He was given a sentence in the county jail for three months.

LeClair's trouble was mostly due to excessive use of liquor, on his way back here from Braze. Alfred Braze, who recently served a sentence under the name of Prince, pleaded guilty to intoxication and in lieu of a fine was given 30 days in jail. He disclosed on a saloon in Barre.

The Republican state committee has prepared a booklet, in which appears the statement of the candidates for state offices as well as likenesses of them.

Mrs. Daniel Roach on Thursday evening gave a miscellaneous shower to Miss Flora Paige at her home on Barre street.
The evening was pleasantly passed and many gifts were presented. Miss Paige, whose marriage to John Duncan of Barre will take place in a few days.
